We've been empowering men since 1885 to live their faith at home, at work and within their community through Charity, Unity and Fraternity. As Knights, we help with local youth programs and our community's seniors.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the 169th Harrow Fair! The dedicated Directors and volunteers have worked many hours planning the events for young and old to enjoy. This agricultural fair began to showcase local farmers and their accomplishments. It continues today to bring agriculture together and allow all to display their baked good, flowers, canning, crafts, crops and livestock.

The weekend includes 4-H displays and shows, vendors, touring the barns and the parade through town on Saturday morning. Live entertainment performs on our main stage and enjoy the many rides on the midway. The halls are filled with exhibits from the community.

Thank you to the members of both boards and the community volunteers for continuing to make this one of the greatest agricultural events in southwestern Ontario.

Jesse T

Thursday, August 31-8:00pm

JESSIE T packs a punch - she's the kind of girl you can take home to mama but she'll also bring a bottle of tequila to Thanksgiving dinner. Jessie's FACTOR funded debut album "Reckless Heart" was released September 2016 and produced by award-winning producer J.Richard Hutt (Northern Pikes, Tom Cochrane, Jamie Warren). She released 4 singles from this project, with the third "Helbound" reaching #100 on the BDS charts.

With the mind of a songwriter and the heart of a performer, her music walks you through finding love, experiencing heartbreak and looks at everyday human experiences from a different and more intimate perspective. This album helped solidify Jessie as a competitor in the music industry and plant her roots within Canada's country music scene.

Whether performing live or virtually, Jessie leaves it all on the stage. Since moving from Kingston to Kitchener in 2012, Jessie has been headlining venues and festivals across Ontario, most notably performing Manitoulin Country Fest (2019), JUNO Host City Music Exchange (2019), Trackside Music Festival (2018) and KW 50th Oktoberfest alongside Dallas Smith for a duo performance of Smith's hit song 'One Drink Ago' (2018).

Jessie has also played stages alongside some of the best in Canadian country music including Paul Brandt, Jess Moskaluke, James Barker Band, The Reklaws, Michelle Wright, Adam Gregory, Steve Wilkinson (The Wilkinsons), and Beverley Mahood (LACE). Most recently, she has joined Jason Blaine's band as a background vocalist supporting his 2022 shows. Jessie T is releasing her highly anticipated second studio album in spring 2023. "This is the album that I've always wanted to release," says Jessie, "I'm very excited for this new music to be heard and to share more of myself with all of you".

Genevieve Fisher

Friday, September 1 - 8:00 pm

London born and raised, Genevieve Fisher, has earned 9 top 50 hits on both Billboard's BDS and Mediabase Canadian National Country Charts. In 2021, Genevieve achieved the most consecutive weeks on the national chart of her career. Her name entered onto the top 40, starting with the David James duet "Then There's You". This was immediately followed by her own solo top 40 hit "Playing Favourites". It was also the first time that her name appeared in the top 40 with two different songs at the same time. Genevieve has earned recognition within the Canadian Country Music scene by earning 7 Female Artist of the Year nominations as well as numerous nominations for Single of the Year and Songwriter of the Year at the Country Music Association of Ontario Music Awards. While still in her teens, The Canadian Country Music Association recognized Genevieve's emerging talent with her CCMA performance selection at the 2012 New Artist Showcase in Saskatoon. Her songwriting skills continue to be acknowledged by the CCMA as witnessed by her selection to perform for the prestigious Songwriters Series in 2016 and 2018. Her Indigenous background has allowed her to register 3 number 1 hits on the North American Indigenous Music Countdown chart. Genevieve has had the opportunity to perform at some of the biggest music festivals in Canada including Boots and Hearts, Havelock Jamboree, Lucknow Music In The Fields, Manitoulin Country Fest, Trackside and Indigenous Day Live. She has had, and continues to have, the privilege of writing with some of Country music's brightest songwriters including Aaron Goodvin, Jason Blaine, Steven Lee Olsen, Patricia Conroy, Michelle Wright, Jason Massey, Jennifer Schott and many more.

Michelle Wright

Saturday, September 2 - 8:00 pm

Like so many country artists Michelle Wright cut her teeth playing six nights a week in clubs across Canada. In 1988, after teaming with Savannah Records President Brian Ferriman, Savannah Records released her first CD, Do Right By Me, in Canada, and Michelle and her band set off to tour North America. Do Right By Me was a major hit in her homeland, with seven chart singles and over 40,000 copies sold. That success opened many doors, including at the brand new Arista/Nashville label. Arista/Nashville made Michelle one of its flagship artists, and in 1990, they released her first U.S. album, Michelle Wright. American audiences responded immediately and enthusiastically to "that girl singer from up north with the snow in her videos," and her first single, "New Kind Of Love," became her first Top Thirty American hit.

In 1992, Arista released Now & Then. Now & Then, which produced a total of six singles included, including "One Time Around," "Guitar Talk," "He Would Be Sixteen," and the song that changed everything, "Take It Like A Man." "Take It Like A Man," was released in February of 1992 and in less than a year, Michelle became the first Canadian-born artist in the modern era of country music to have a Top Ten hit in America, a Number One video on CMT-USA (also for "Take It Like A Man") and to win a major U.S. music industry award (the Academy of Country Music Top New Female Vocalist award in 1992). The song also catapulted Michelle to superstardom, receiving a total of twelve music industry awards, including the 1993 Canadian Country Music Association's Fans' Choice Entertainer Of The Year award and double platinum honors for Now & Then the same year.

The career that followed is one that many artists dream of having. She has walked to podiums in music centers like Los Angeles and Toronto to accept more than forty major awards, including her 2011 induction into the Canadian Country Music Hall of Fame. A total of twelve album releases have sold millions of copies and produced twenty-five Top Ten radio hits. Michelle enjoys an international career that has seen her grace concert stages across North America, Europe, Africa, South America, Australia, and Asia.

In August of 2022, BFD/Audium Nashville released Wright's tenth studio project, Milestone. Working with producer Bob Funk (the husband of one of the newest inductees into the Canadian Country Music Hall of Fame, Patricia Conroy), she recorded nine brand new songs, including the lead single, "Small Town. The second single, "Heartbreak Song," lays bare the misery of surviving the end of a relationship. The song was cowritten with Texas Hills' Adam Wakefield, who also appears in the song's music video. Milestone showcases the distinctive musical style that has been the hallmark of her career. One of the highlights of the new release is Wright's new recording of the classic "Take It Like A Man"

46. By Homecraft Directors ..... 1st $10.00
Best Homemade German Sauerkraut using the following recipe:

Homemade German Sauerkraut

Fermentation Time: 250 hrs

Yield: 1 quart

With this easy recipe, you can adjust the yield to your liking since each batch ferments in a 1-quart Mason jar. It can take anywhere from one to three weeks to achieve a nice sour tartness in your sauerkraut; in the cool temperatures of winter, it will take longer, and in the warm days of summer, it will go more quickly.

Ingredients

- 8 to 10 cups loosely packed shredded cabbage (about 2 pounds)
- 10 juniper berries
- 1 teaspoon caraway seeds
- 1 teaspoon mustard seeds
- 3 teaspoons pickling salt, or other non-iodized salt, divided
- 1 cup filtered water

Steps to Make It

1. In a clean, non-metallic bowl, mix together the cabbage, juniper berries, caraway seeds, mustard seeds, and 2 teaspoons of the pickling salt.
2. Stir to release the cabbage's juices.
3. Let it rest for 10 minutes and then mix again. If needed, you can let it rest longer, as much as 1 to 2 hours.
4. Sterilize a 1-quart, wide-mouthed Mason jar and the lid by boiling for several minutes in water and draining on a clean dishcloth.
5. Pack the cabbage and seasonings into the sterilized jar, pushing down with a wooden (not metal) spoon.
6. Combine the filtered water with the remaining pickling salt. Pour over the cabbage, filling it so it reaches up to the rim of the jar. Cap loosely with a sterilized canning lid.

7. Place the jar on a tray to catch overflowing juices. The mixture will begin to bubble.
8. After the bubbling stops, check the container. If the water level has fallen below the rim of the jar, top it off with more salt water (keeping a ratio of 1 teaspoon pickling salt per 1 cup of water) that has been warmed slightly so it will dissolve completely.
9. Keep the jar between 65 F and 72 F on the tray for 1 to 3 weeks to achieve a pleasantly sour flavor. After the first week, taste the sauerkraut every few days until it reaches the tartness you desire.
10. Once it is to your liking, skim any (harmless) white spots or film from the top, close the jar tightly with a sterilized canning lid and ring, wipe off the outside of the jar, and store it in the refrigerator.

Recipe Tips

- Using pickling salt, a fine-grained salt that has no additives, will keep the sauerkraut liquid from clouding, which in itself is not harmful, but creates an unappetizing appearance.
- If you are increasing this recipe, make sure to use the ratio of 1 teaspoon pickling salt per 1 cup of water.
- Whereas canned sauerkraut should be rinsed in a colander before eating to reduce the briny flavor, fresh sauerkraut like this one does not have to be.
- Feel free to add other flavors to the sauerkraut, such as garlic, dill, lemon peel, fennel, and carrot
